

For this issue's editorial I want to give you a very simple message: make 2024 your 'some day'.

It's a phrase we hear all the time at our events. People come up and say 'some day' they want to do a drag-and-drive, 'some day' they want to build their dream car or 'some day' they want to bring the family along with them.

I can tell you that 'some day' is much further away than it seems. Life happens very fast and there will be every reason for why 'some day' isn't soon enough. Putting a date on your goals makes them a target, not an idea. Make it 2024!

Obviously if I tell you 'some day' I want to land a rocket on the moon, that's not realistic. But you know what? I can start YouTubeing how to build rockets. I can buy rockets from the hobby store. I can join a rocket club. I can begin taking steps to making 'some day' sooner.

Drag-and-drive is the same thing. If 'some day' you want to run five-second passes but you haven't driven so much as your mom's Hyundai down the track yet, there's your starting point. Make 'some day' 2024 by getting to the track and conquering the initial moves needed.

There's so many ways to make a drag-and-drive 'some day' happen. Often we tell ourselves 'some day' because we don't have the time or money now. Well, what are the things we can do now that bring 'some day' closer? Well, for starters, you can do a drag-and-drive event in any car you have. Bring your daily, bring your hot rod, bring your tricycle...anything! There are events all over the country now that would love your support and you will meet all the right people who can make 'some day' real. There are entries open for events pretty much year round so there is no reason 'some day' can't be today. Get your entry in, let your work ethic do the rest.

TOM BAILEY 'TODAY IS YOUR 'SOME DAY'

If your 'some day' is a classic car, get the cheapest one you can find and start learning about how to make it work. There is a wealth of information on the internet for almost everything; you won't be alone. Post on our Sick groups to see if there is someone local who can help you. Heck, even if you don't want to stop foot in a car at all, you could hold a sign along the route! You might find even that first step ignites a brave fire in you to go further.

We have a lot of subscribers to this magazine, thousands more than actual drag-and-drive competitors. So I am really hoping that I reach a few of you with these words so that you can turn 'some day' into 'right now'.

Talking of 'some day' type things, we're going to open entries soon for Sick 66. A lot of people say 'some day' they would like to drive Route 66. Well, here's your chance! Don't let 'some day' stop you from making it today.

I'd like to wish all of our readers the best Christmas and New Year as we head into the season and that whatever you wish for 'some day' in your life, you can achieve in 2024.

Tom Bailey is the publisher of Sick The Magazine and the driver of the Drag Week-winning Sick Seconds 2.0 Camaro.